

Witch Libs

Verb

Adjective

Noun

Place

Noun

Thing

It was the month of Halloween and everything was very _____. Sara the witch decided to go out for a _____ at Sunrise Village, leaving her cat Smokey at home. While she was gone, Smokey decided to get into a little trouble. He _____ on the _____, _____ the brooms, knocked over the _____ cauldron, and ate some of the _____ on the kitchen counter. Finally, he decided to _____ around the house. When he was done, he looked down to discover he had grown 10 times as big! He thought that was very _____. Sara came home and saw what he had done. She didn't have what she needed to change him back so they decided to _____ to the _____ to buy some _____ to help shrink him back down. The little ghost they passed thought Smokey looked very _____ in his new size. After gathering all the items they needed, the two headed home. On the way, Smokey found a _____ and insisted on _____ it back on the _____ way home. Once they arrived, Sara set about making a special cookie that would turn Smokey back to normal. They looked very _____ when they were done but Smokey did not want to eat one! He liked being big. So Sara sighed and said "Okay, but only until Halloween is over!" Smokey was very happy about this and _____ around the house, knocking over a _____ in the process. "Oh well," said Sara. "At least it will be an exciting Halloween!"

Once you've filled out your Witch Lib, head on over to mysunrisevillage.com for directions on how to submit your story and receive your prize! In addition to participatory prizes, we will be selecting our top 3 stories to receive a $100 gift card to a Sunrise Village business.

Have fun!