

Turkey Libs

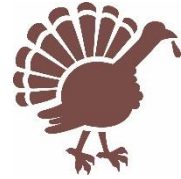

Adjective

Verb

Noun (thing)

Noun (Sunrise
Village business)

Thanksgiving was fast approaching and Harold the turkey was getting nervous. He had heard a rumor that some people like to eat turkeys on Thanksgiving! He decided he was going to hide out at Sunrise Village until the holiday was over. First, he _____¹ through _____². He thought their decorations were very _____³. Next, he _____⁴ around the _____⁵ _____⁶ inside of _____⁷. After that, Harold decided to get some fresh air. As he wandered around outside, he stumbled upon a _____⁸ _____⁹ sitting on a bench. Deciding it was too cool to just leave there, he hid it inside _____¹⁰. Harold was starting to feel a little sleepy, so he curled up for a nap inside of _____¹¹. While he napped, Harold's friends noticed he was missing. They drove around trying to find him. After a while they pulled up to Sunrise Village and found a _____¹² _____¹³. They _____¹⁴ all around, knowing that this meant their friend was nearby. They finally found him as he rolled out from his napping spot. Harold's friends laughed as he explained why he decided to hide. They quickly told him that just wanted to celebrate with him, not eat him! Once that was settled, the group _____¹⁵ home. They were all ready to prepare for the holiday fun ahead.

Once you've filled out your Turkey Lib, head on over to mysunrisevillage.com for directions on how to submit your story and receive your prize! In addition to participatory prizes, we will be selecting our top 3 stories to receive a $100 gift card to a Sunrise Village business.